

My Final Wishes

A personal letter of instruction for my family — Ament Law Group, P.C.

This document is not a legal will — it does not distribute property or override any legal document. It is a personal guide to help your family carry out your wishes, reduce difficult decisions during a hard time, and make sure the things that matter to you are handled the way you want. Store it with your estate planning documents and tell your family where it is.

About Me

Full Legal Name

Date of Birth

Place of Birth

Currently Living At

Disposition of Remains

I prefer my remains to be:

Cremated Buried Donated to science No preference Other

If buried, I would like to be buried at:

Cemetery / Location

Burial plot info / deed location

If cremated, I would like my ashes to be:

Scattered (see note below) Buried Other

Specific instructions

Funeral & Memorial Service

I would like:

A celebration of life A graveside service only A traditional funeral No service

Preferred funeral home (if any):

Funeral Home / Contact

Pre-arranged funeral / prepaid plan:

Yes

No

Plan details / location of contract

Viewing / visitation:

Yes, open casket

Yes, closed casket

No viewing

No preference

Religious or cultural traditions I would like honored:

Obituary

Writing a draft obituary now (or leaving notes) is one of the greatest gifts you can give your family. Use this section as a guide — your family can use it as-is or expand on it.

Full name (including middle name, maiden name):

Age and date of passing:

Born in:

Occupation / career highlights:

Education:

Military service (branch, years, rank):

Survived by (list family members as you would want them listed):

Preceded in death by:

Memberships, organizations, community involvement:

Hobbies, interests, passions:

What I want people to remember about me:

A few sentences I would want in my obituary (in your own words):

Signed:

Signature

Date

This is a personal letter of instruction only — it is not a legal will, trust, or binding document. For legally binding instructions on property distribution, consult your estate planning attorney.

Ament Law Group, P.C. | 4785 William Penn Highway, Murrysville, PA 15668 | (724) 733-1995 | ament.law